8-04-02-01. Application for architectural examination. Architectural candidates for examination shall apply to the national council of architectural registration boards, requesting the council's North Dakota application form and instructions for preparation of a council record. The appropriate fees, including the statutory fee for examination and registration, together with additional fees charged by the council payable to the national council of architectural registration boards, and to the board, shall accompany this application. The national council of architectural registration boards will notify the architectural applicant of the applicant's eligibility to be admitted to the examinations, after evaluating the applicant's record. The architectural applicant shall remit to the national council of architectural registration boards an additional fee for preparation of the record, if applicable.

History: Amended effective February 1, 1983; February 1, 2005.

General Authority: NDCC 43-03-08

Law Implemented: NDCC 43-03-08

8-04-02-02. Application for registration by NCARB certificate holders. Architectural applicants must hold the national council of architectural registration boards certification as a prerequisite for registration. An architectural applicant for registration shall apply to the national council of architectural registration boards, requesting transmittal of the applicant's council record to the board. The appropriate fees, including the statutory fee for examination and registration, together with additional fees charged by the council payable to the national council of architectural registration boards shall accompany the application. An architectural applicant shall pay any additional fees required by the national council of architectural registration boards for such purposes as updating of records, or reinstatement of lapsed certification, if applicable.

History: Amended effective February 1, 1983; February 1, 2005.

General Authority: NDCC 43-03-08

Law Implemented: NDCC 43-03-08

8-04-02-03. Applicants not holding NCARB certification. Architectural applicants who do not hold the national council of architectural registration boards certification shall be required to obtain certification in order to be registered in North Dakota. The procedure shall be similar to that for an architectural applicant for examination, except that, in many instances, an examination will not be necessary in order to establish certification.

History: Amended effective February 1, 2005.

General Authority: NDCC 43-03-08

Law Implemented: NDCC 43-03-08

8-04-02-04. Application for landscape architectural examination.

Candidates for landscape architectural examination beginning January 1, 2005, shall submit an application to the board and include a council record provided through the council of landscape architectural registration boards. If the landscape architectural applicant has not passed the licensure examination, the applicant shall apply to the council of landscape architectural registration boards to complete the examination process.

History: Effective February 1, 2005.

General Authority: NDCC 43-03-08

Law Implemented: NDCC 43-03-08

8-04-02-05. Acceptance for landscape architectural registration to December 31, 2006. Candidates for landscape architectural examination for the period from January 1, 2005, to December 31, 2006, shall be accepted for the council of landscape architectural registration boards examination regardless of education or experience.

History: Effective February 1, 2005.

General Authority: NDCC 43-03-08

Law Implemented: NDCC 43-03-08

8-04-02-06. Exemption from CLARB certification. Any person who applies for licensure as a landscape architect in North Dakota up to December 31, 2006, has successfully completed the council of landscape architectural registration boards landscape architectural licensing examination prior to that date or has a current landscape architectural license in another state, shall be considered to meet the requirements for a landscape architectural license in North Dakota in lieu of council of landscape architectural registration boards certification and regardless of education or experience. The candidate shall submit an application and application fee to the board.

History: Effective February 1, 2005.
